people and we regard it of utmost importance FMG do everything possible to facilitate that task.

4. Amachree expressed understanding and satisfaction. As result his visit he well understood depth humanitarian concern and would assure Lagos aware true nature our problem.

5. Amachree also indicated he has had extensive conversations Sen Kennedy's staff and hoped see Senator himself in New York before he (Amachree) departed for Lagos evening 11th. He added that Kennedy staff had told him that Biafran reps had informed Kennedy that Biafra's sovereignty is negotiable. Amachree rejoined that if that is true Biafran position, war can end. He says he has asked that Kennedy's office try arrange meeting between Biafran reps and Amachree with Kennedy present to pin down this point /and has offered to return to U.S. whenever Senator can arrange.
